Hot weather next week

With the expected warm weather on Monday and Tuesday next week, we encourage students to leave their jumpers and scarves off for the day. Girls are welcome to wear their college socks instead of stockings, and students will be allowed to remove their tie during the day.

Full winter uniform is to be worn on Wednesday for our Year 12 celebrations.

Summer Sports Trials

Our Summer Sport trials have now concluded except for those students in the Blue cricket squad. The Blue cricket squad will have a final trial session on Tuesday 19 September from 3.45pm to 5.00pm to ensure due diligence in selections.

All students will be advised of team selections next week.

Please note that there is no training next week (Week 10). Training will resume on Tuesday 10 October (Week 1 of Term 4). Dates to purchase team uniforms will be announced shortly.

If you haven't already had a chance, please read the email with the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's) attached, and then complete this form to register for the forum. If you can't make the forum, you can leave questions on the form.

There will also be an opportunity to ask questions during the forum, using the zoom chat function.

Please register by 5.00pm on Monday 18 September.

Bus Travel to and from school

Please make sure your student has their physical bus pass with them when travelling to and from school. Berrima Buslines have advised that a photo of the bus pass on a student's phone is not acceptable.

No student will be refused entry to the bus if they are travelling to or from school, but those without a bus pass will have to pay $1.10 each trip. To avoid this cost, please remind your child that they should have their physical bus pass ready to show to the driver when they board the bus.
