

Uniform regulations (at school and outside of school)

Chevalier College places a strong emphasis on the presentation of its students and the adherence to uniform standards, consistently expecting excellence. Please take time to read the attached policy and familiarise yourself with the College expectations.

Students who do not abide by the uniform regulations will be asked to fix the identified problem and may be asked to not return to school until the issue is resolved.

Students not in compliance with the uniform regulations may be placed on a uniform detention.

All final decisions regarding uniform regulations are at the discretion of the Assistant Principals – Wellbeing.
